[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 15.]

Joint Resolution in relation to certain railroads in the State of Missouri.

Whereas by the fourth section of an act of Congress entitled "An act granting the right of way to the State of Missouri, and a portion of the public lands to aid in the construction of certain railroads in said State," approved June tenth, eighteen hundred and fifty two, it is provided as follows: "That the said lands hereby granted to the said State, shall be subject to the disposal of the Legislature thereof for the purposes aforesaid and no other;" and the said railroads shall be and remain public highways for the use of the Government of the United States free from toll or other charge upon the transportation of any property or troops of the United States; and whereas the said grant of lands has, by virtue of said act, and of an act of the Legislature of the State of Missouri, been applied to the construction of the Hannibal and Saint Joseph railroad, constructed and owned by the Hannibal and Saint Joseph Railroad Company, and the Pacific Railroad by the Pacific Railroad Company, which last-mentioned road is finished and running from St. Louis to Rolla; and whereas the ability of said railroad companies to transport the property and troops of the United States over their respective railroads has been greatly impaired by the destruction of bridges, depots, and other property of said companies, and the partial destruction of said roads, and in view of the pressing public necessities, the United States not waiving the right to have their property and troops transported free from toll or other charge by said railroads, as contemplated by the reservation aforesaid, have resolved as follows: therefore

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to make such an adjustment with the Hannibal and Saint Joseph Railroad Company and the Pacific Railroad Company, for the transportation, past and prospective, of the property and troops of the United States over said railroads during the existence of this rebellion, as in view of the public exigencies may be just and reasonable, and to pay the same: Provided, however, That the sum paid to said companies shall be as near as may be the cost of transporting such property and troops, and not exceeding the prices fixed by the War Department on the twelfth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, for transportation by railroads, which adjustment and liquidation shall preclude any further claim on behalf of such companies against the Government for compensation or damages previously incurred or for the military occupation of the said roads by the United States Government up to the time of the passage of this act: And provided further, That the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, withhold from time to time such portion of the moneys which may be due to either of said railroad companies to indemnify the Government against any failure of such company to promptly transport such troops and supplies; but nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the Secretary of War from taking possession of said railroads and their appurtenances, and applying the same to the exclusive use of the Government whenever in his judgment the public interests may require it, without, upon such use, compensation to said companies.

Approved March [illegible], 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 16.]

A Resolution declaratory of the intent and meaning of a certain act therein named.

Whereas doubts have arisen as to the true intent and meaning of act entitled "An act to indemnify the States for expenses incurred by them in defence of the United States," approved July twenty seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty one:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the said act shall be construed to apply to expenses incurred as well after as before the date of the approval thereof.

Approved, March 8, 1862

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 17.]

A Resolution providing for the payment of the awards of the commissioners to investigate military claims in the Department of the West.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all sums allowed to be due from the United States to individuals, companies, or corporations by the Commission heretofore appointed by the Secretary of War, for the investigation of military claims against the Department of the West, composed of David Davis, Joseph Holt, and Hugh Campbell, now sitting at Saint Louis, Missouri, shall be deemed to be due and payable, and shall be paid by the disbursing officers either in Saint Louis or Washington, to each claimant upon the presentation of the voucher with the Commissioners' certificate thereon to any claimant or claimants indicating the allowance of the claim and to what amount: This resolution shall apply only to claims and contracts for services, [illegible] materials and [illegible] subsistence, clothing, transportation, arms, supplies and the purchase, hire, and construction of vessels. Approved, March 11 1862.

We might pardon the ungrateful if they would forget who are their enemies as speedily and as completely as they often forget who were their friends.

Why is an author the most peculiar of animals? Because his tale comes out of his head.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.—The Humboldt Times of August 2d has the following: "A band of Indians attacked the ranch of one Whitney on Redwood creek, and first fired on a man named Freeman. He returned to the house, where three soldiers were stopping. Soon after this, the inmates thinking the Indians had left, two of the men, named Whitney and Mitchell, stepped out, armed with rifles, and went to a field near by. One of the soldiers also left the house, but had not gone more than five or six yards when the Indians secreted near by fired, killing him instantly. At the same time they also fired on Whitney and Mitchell, killing both. The Indians then set fire to the barn and fired sixty or more shots into the house, without any damage however. The inmates of the house returned the fire, and killed two and wounded several Indians. They then left. Since the above was written we received news of the murder of three more men; no particulars yet."

GENERAL CRITTENDEN.—Among the numerous anecdotes we have heard of the coolness and daring shown by General Crittenden on the field of Shiloh is one told by a rebel prisoner, to whom it seems neither the name or rank of General Crittenden were known. "We had you whipped at one time," said the rebel captive, "and would have kept you whipped and routed you, if it hadn't been for a fellow that rode up in front of you on a d—d little stump-tailed nag just as you were breaking, and threw his cap into the air with a shout like a trumpet. After that there was no doing anything with you, and it was soon all over with us!" That "fellow" was General Crittenden.—Louisville Journal.

Gen. Mitchell has announced to the Tennesseans that it is his determination to rebuild no more of the railroad bridges with the labor of his soldiers, burned in that country by the traitors. He will draft men from among their sympathizers to do this work hereafter.

[illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG [illegible] 1862

Illinois

The secesh press has [illegible] the fact that the democrats had a large majority in the State Convention to remodel the State Constitution of Illinois, as evidence that the democracy—the Vallandigham democracy—were in large majority in that State.

The exact truth in regard to this matter may be thus stated: [illegible] statute [illegible] without [illegible] of party called a State Convention to [illegible] some provisions of the Constitution which were found not to work well. The Constitution thought just the thing several years ago was not what was required for a State which had increased in population from five hundred thousand to nearly two million.

There was a general understanding among public men that there should be no attempt to give the Convention a political character. Some fifty thousand Illinoisans had gone to assist in putting down rebellion. This understanding did not suit the views of the Vallandigham men, and by shrewd management a majority of the Delegates elected were democrats, and the designing semi rebels went to work and organized the Convention by the election of men of their own kidney as officers—in fact, making the Convention a political one. The secesh press in Oregon claimed these results as evidence that their friends were a majority and in power in Illinois, and the party in ascendant in the Convention even went so far as to propose to remove the present Governor and all the State officers and appoint men to fill their places by the Convention—the Convention claiming all power to do so.

The great object of the Vallandigham men in the Convention, however, was so to district the State for the election of members of the Legislature as to secure control of that body thereafter. They deemed this essential to their party success in the future. They knew they had got into power by a fraud upon the people, and that it was necessary, in order to sustain themselves in their position, to follow it by another fraud. Hence, under a system of Jerrymandering they laid out the State in districts so as to give the minority of the people the control of the Legislature.

While concocting these measures the national armies in the West achieved great victories. The blood of the sons of Illinois was freely poured out to achieve them. A member of the Convention offered resolutions of thanks to them for the exhibition of bravery and patriotism. The Vallandigham Delegates succeeded in laying these resolutions upon the table of the Convention.

The Convention finally adjourned and their labors came before the people for final action upon them. The new Constitution was defeated by the citizens at home by some twenty eight thousand majority, and it was well known that the soldiers in the field would give nearly, if not quite, an unanimous vote the same way.

Thus have perished the hopes of the secesh in Illinois, and also the hopes of the secesh in Oregon based upon the assumption that their party had the remotest chance of success in that patriotic State.

State Prison Convicts—State Improvements

We suppose that crimes to be punished by imprisonment and hard labor will continue to be committed, as they always have been in our State. The punishment of persons guilty of crimes by imprisonment in our penitentiary, has not realized the [illegible] hoped for by our people. The penitentiary system in Oregon has proved a failure. Some new system for the security and punishment of prisoners must be adopted. That new system is imperative. What shall it be?

We desire to offer a few thoughts on this subject.

The physical features of our State compel us to be at great expense in constructing good roads at points where they are most needed. We instance one [illegible] between Portland and Tualatin Plains. At all times the road between these places is a bad one on which to transport produce from the interior and goods from Portland, and in portions of the season impassable.

In a new country like ours, where people are poor, and where labor is difficult to be obtained only at high prices, it is next to impossible to improve the roads in the manner needed.

We have one resource [illegible] to avail ourselves of the labor of the prisoners in making the road. In this case their labor would not come in competition with that of our citizens. For the purpose [illegible] we [illegible] avail ourselves of convict labor. Such things have been done in other States and worked remunerative. In this manner their labor may be made successful and [illegible] some atonement for their crimes against society.

We do not propose to present a plan for a system of [illegible] to be adopted to accomplish the [illegible] of the road [illegible] kept [illegible] [illegible] they would [illegible] take on the [illegible] would be a public benefit. It would [illegible] the [illegible] and by many [illegible] [illegible]

The Steamer Golden Gate Burned at Sea

Incidents

Among the saved is an infant [illegible] six months old, which [illegible] was picked up [illegible] [illegible]

Most of the passengers saved were destitute of everything [illegible] upon their persons at the time of the alarm, and nothing being given them [illegible] to their relief.

A collection was taken up on the St. Louis on Tuesday, for the [illegible] and the sum of $[illegible] dollars [illegible] was divided among the most destitute, $15 being given to each. One woman unfortunately [illegible] the rest received $10.

Just as the [illegible] boat was lowered, Stephen Murphy, of this city, [illegible] with his wife and [illegible] [illegible] in the excitement of the moment [illegible] stern [illegible] was instantly swamped. He clung to a seat [illegible] holding his wife [illegible] his knees until a sailor righted the boat. In the meantime [illegible] twenty persons as he thinks [illegible] went down in the [illegible] were drowned [illegible] in the water. One man grappled Murphy's neck [illegible] in the attempt to get on board. A little boy of five or six years of age, belonging to another family, caught Murphy around the neck and clung to him until he was safe. An old lady remained in the middle of the boat, but soon became so exhausted that her head gradually dropped until she was drowned before their eyes, and her body swept overboard, but continued to drift along side, with the boat [illegible] miles. They all sat in the water waist deep, and were floated towards the shore at the mercy of the waves until finally saved.

THE CHILD OF THE WRECK

In the statement of Mrs. [illegible], who is frequently spoken of in the several accounts as having exercised the most extraordinary coolness and fortitude throughout the whole disaster, we find the following closing paragraph:

Capt. Hudson came to me and said he had rescued a baby, and said he wanted me to take charge of it. As every one seemed to claim it, the rescued passengers by common consent voted the little creature to me. The child had been found floating ashore by a Mr. Gammson, who took care of it, carrying it in his arms for forty eight hours, and the only food the little thing could receive was a [illegible] lager beer, which Mr. [illegible] had administered it from his mouth, having found a cask that had washed ashore, which he hailed as a great [illegible] offering.

About [illegible] o'clock a schooner commanded by a French captain sent a boat ashore and reported that he had picked up a French passenger belonging to the Golden Gate. This man had been in the water 2[illegible] hours, and when discovered was fast asleep, with a handkerchief thrown over his head to keep off the burning sun, and fully buoyed up by his life preserver.

THE MAN AT THE WHEEL

The terrible occasion developed many heroes. One should be especially named. [illegible] Capt. Pearson's account it will be observed that he speaks of having noticed [illegible] the direction of the steamer's head [illegible] she afterwards headed for the shore. It seems that there were three or four men at the wheel, and all left it except a brave sailor named William Howl[illegible]. He remained at his post until the flames were in his face, and then left for a few minutes to get a rope. Having cut off a rope, he returned and held the steamer for the land again. [illegible] the wheel, and then dropped overboard [illegible] and is fortunately among the saved. But for this courageous man many more lives had been lost.

MAILS LOST

The following communication from Postmaster Parker shows what and how many mails were lost with the Golden Gate:

We sent by that steamer, which left this port at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 21st of July, ten bags of letters and 8 bags of newspapers, 1[illegible],[illegible] letters, including [illegible] registered or valuable letters. These are exclusive of those sent from the Sacramento office.

All letters for the East deposited in this office between the morning of the 11th and 21st of July were sent [illegible] the Golden Gate.

THE TREASURE LOST

The amount of treasure shipped by the Golden Gate was $1,[illegible] of which $1,114,047 24 was for New York, $2[illegible] for England and $[illegible] for Panama.

It is thought that half a million dollars worth of Government [illegible] were lost, of which no duplicates were taken [illegible]. This of course is lost.

The Golden Gate was valued at $[illegible],000, and was not insured. She was built in New York in 1851 expressly for the service in which until her loss she was engaged. In August of that year she left New York under command of [illegible] Patterson. She was subsequently commanded by Capts. [illegible] Watkins, [illegible] and Hudson. In 185[illegible], when commanded by Capt. Isham, she stranded near San Diego, and was damaged to the extent of $100,000.

Among the personal losses of property we hear that Capt. Whitney, who was washed up [illegible] and afterwards recovered, had [illegible] stolen from his body some valuables, $1,000.

NOTHING LATER.—The Hunt brought nothing later from the mines this evening, as there was no connection beyond the Dalles. We are indebted to Wells Fargo & Co. for a copy of the Daily Mountaineer, [illegible]. It is a small sized sheet, very well printed, and contains a fair amount of news matter. We wish our old friend New Home [illegible] but can't help pitying [illegible] those who are engaged in publishing daily newspapers in this country.

THE LATE VOTE IN ILLINOIS.—The rejection of the proposed new State Constitution of Illinois by a large majority of its people is significant by virtue of its bearings on the slavery question. The instrument was fashioned by those who were in the interest of the Democratic organization and was specially designed to serve as a political [illegible] support for slavery. Electoral districts were artfully so established by it as to keep the controlling power in the hands of that part of the State which is largely settled from the border slave States. But more than that, the whole spirit of the excited canvass showed most palpably that the real issue was between the anti-slavery policy represented by the Illinoisan President Lincoln and the pro-slavery policy represented by the Illinoisan Richardson, whose name stands first among the signers of the late Vallandigham address. It is likely enough that some few votes both for and against it were cast irrespective of all such considerations, but the different attitudes of the journalists and of the Congressmen of the two parties allow no doubt that the vote was a test of the disposition of the people toward slavery. The result proves that the war, instead of inclining the people of the great Western State to be more tolerant and [illegible] toward slavery, has had exactly the contrary effect. It has made them more Republican than ever.

What is yet more noteworthy, the vote of the [illegible],000 soldiers who have been serving in the great army of the Southwest [illegible] heard from in proportion even stronger against the new Constitution than that of the people at home. The actual contact with the [illegible] institution, and the actual experience which governs the rebels, seem to have made these soldiers peculiarly opposed to every civil or military movement calculated to placate Southern hostility. But their temper toward slavery has materially changed. They are brought face to face with the fact that it is nothing else under heaven than slavery which has generated this rebellion and stimulated it to all its fiendish work. They cannot help concentrating a hatred for the system in its political [illegible] whatever be its social claims.

It [illegible] for them to behold terrible consequences to the white race without taking into account the grievances of the black. [illegible] for them to know that they [illegible] with [illegible] what may happen if the traitors and slavery get the [illegible]. The West is as determined as the East to yield nothing to the [illegible] arms in its hands. The feeling is that if that institution were favorable [illegible] it must be [illegible] more friendly attitude than this. All Northern men alike are beginning to question whether the warning, that they who take the sword shall perish by the sword, may not come to pass in the history of the world be awfully verified in the fate of slavery. At the very least it is certain that the longer the war is protracted the more is the [illegible] danger, and that [illegible] its support is wiser they would [illegible] in making their peace with the Government [illegible] —*N. CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at [illegible] Book Store, and at Charles Barr[illegible]

RATHER COOL.—An honest, unsophisticated looking individual called at one of the large hardware stores of this city yesterday, and asked the salesman if he had any skates for sale. Unfortunately the [illegible] had none on hand—and the [illegible] customer went somewhere else. Query: where [illegible] come from? where was he going? and what on earth did he want with skates at this season of the year? The only ice we have seen for several months has been in our [illegible]

SLIGHTLY DAMAGED, ONLY.—We learn from a gentleman just down from Walla Walla that the steamer Tenino is not damaged but slightly, and that she has been safely removed from the rock on which she struck and hauled on to the shore near Texas Rapids. Her freight has all been safely removed, and but little of it damaged.

SAILED.—The steamship Pacific sailed for Victoria and San Francisco last evening, at half-past six o'clock, with one hundred and fourteen passengers and a small amount of treasure. The shipment of treasure was much lighter than usual, owing mainly to the fact that there have been but two [illegible] of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express on the route between this city and Salmon river since the sailing of the Sierra Nevada; hence, the amount brought down during the past week has been comparatively small in proportion to former weeks.

FUNNY.—Considerable amusement was afforded the spectators upon the wharf to witness the sailing of the Pacific last evening in the desperate struggles made by belated passengers to gain a foot hold on the decks of the ship. We believe, however, that all were [illegible] who really desired to go, and were gaily carried off amid the firing of cannon, general shouting, laughing and waving of white handkerchiefs.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We understand that upon the steamship Pacific entering the Willamette river, Monday morning, she hailed and stopped the iron-clad steamer Leviathan, and that a gentleman on board the Pacific very kindly furnished a file of the latest San Francisco papers for the benefit of Mossman's & Co.'s Express, which will thus be enabled to furnish news to the upper country ahead of everything else. Quite a favor.

"SLIGHT VARIATION."—Although the iron-clad steamer Leviathan has no ram, and hence cannot be expected to do heavy butting, still we are satisfied that no steamer in these waters [illegible], cleaner, or more effectual "kicking."

[illegible]—We saw yesterday a quantity, near $6,000, of beautiful, bright and clean gold dust recently brought from Powder river. This dust will undoubtedly assay at least $17 [illegible]

REPAIRING.—We notice that the steamer Vancouver is undergoing a general overhaul and thorough repairs—with new planking upon her hull, new wheels, new guards and [illegible] everything good as new. Hurrah for her energetic owners and commanders. We wish them abundant success.

The new steamer at Vancouver, we learn from a friend, is progressing rapidly, and when completed will present a fine appearance, and creditable to this trade.

PLEASURE EXCURSION.—We learn that it is the intention of the commanders of the iron-clad steamer Leviathan to take a pleasure excursion on next Saturday afternoon. The Leviathan is now being fitted up with cabin rooms on her upper deck, also promenades, banisters, seats, etc., etc. Those desirous of taking a ride on this fast sailing craft, are requested to apply for seats at Mossman & Co.'s Express office, or to the Captain on board.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—At an early hour on [illegible] morning, on board the steamer [illegible], James Rafferty, a deck hand, whilst engaged in stowing away baggage, was accidentally shot. The ball, from a revolver, passed through the right arm, and entering the side, broke one of the ribs. The wounds are considered dangerous.—Daily Mountaineer.

[illegible] was recently discovered in Australia from the limestone ceiling of which a dog's head stuck out. It was broken off and found to be a complete petrifaction.

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco, to receive advertisements, and transact business for the DAILY and WEEKLY [illegible] Office No. 171½ Washington street, nearly [illegible] to Maguire's Opera House.

Selecting this as his field of operation although qualified [illegible] the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for [illegible] Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. POSTMASTER REMOVED —Charles Watrous, Post Office Agent, has removed P. L. Pender, postmaster of Vallecito, Calaveras county, on suspicion of abstracting newspapers from the mails which passed through his office. Papers for offices beyond Vallecito have been missed for some time, which fact directed suspicion to the Vallecito office. A trap was laid, and the theft discovered. D. Of all diseases, the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering, down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self Abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities of all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years' practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures— Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR L J CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The Commissioners recommend their publicity and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate—The undersigned desires, for the benefit of those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the certain recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious habit of self pollution, the passion by a wife, depressed spirits and mind unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance, but alas! after a few weeks and in several instances months of their treatment, I found to my sorrow still worse. That instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming, in their terrible [illegible] feeling that the end of my disease had gone finally conquered the brain and the world of affliction and pain. I despaired of ever regaining my health strength and vigor and as a last resort and with but a faint hope I called upon Dr Czapkay who, after examining my case prescribed such remedies which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pains and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result I resolved to place myself under his treatment and [illegible] restore to me to all his directions and advice my mind became clear and my ideas [illegible] the [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous trembling, [illegible] by even the slightest alarm or excitement, the miserable depression and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting and often pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I feel as if I had never been affected—the cure which but a short time ago I could not believe [illegible]. With the view of guarding the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit of skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that once under his care a speedy and permanent cure will be effected.

H E FILLMORE

State of California, County of San Francisco—Subscribed and sworn to before me this [illegible] day of April A D 1856. Signed

MARYSVILLE June 3d 1855.

Dr L J Czapkay, San Francisco. Dear Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and I feel I think I shall not need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks to-day, since I called at your institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me, yet the fortnight's almost [illegible] to do something to assist pain in my back and head and strengthen my nerves that I would not get well—all right at everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the sad symptoms and the removal of those I recall. The first one of them, and the ulcers [illegible] and the cutting pain in either one which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except my having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours THOMAS HAYDEN

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as a conduct of scientific skill but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning; and although insensible to the agonies I yet despised the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr L J Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
